Any remaining balance at the end of the calendar year will expire and cannot be carried forward to the following calendar year for use in 2026.

ITF JUNIOR TEAM COMPETITIONS

The ITF team competitions give young tennis players the opportunity to experience international competition and the unique atmosphere of playing in a team for their country.

The ITF Development Department will then reimburse National Associations upon receipt of a copy of the flight ticket invoice (up to a maximum value of $3,500).

Please note that National Associations will only be reimbursed after the team has played in the ITF Junior Team Competition(s).

ITF JUNIOR TENNIS INITIATIVE (JTI)

The Junior Tennis Initiative (JTI) is a 14-and-under junior development programme funded by the ITF, which forms a key part of the National Association's player development pathway.

A national JTI provides opportunities for increased participation in tennis, as well as identifying the most talented players for focused player development within a nation.

Eligible National Associations can apply to use the rebate for their JTI in the form of:

- a development grant to be invested in the key components that form part of the national 14-and-under junior development programme; or
- a contribution to purchase tennis equipment locally for the purposes of the JTI only (a maximum of 50% can be used as a contribution).

Full details regarding the rebate application for the JTI are stated within the JTI Guidance Document.

During 2025, the ITF would encourage investment in:

- organising a series of Tennis Festivals;
- organising competitions within Primary Schools; or
- organising competitions within Clubs focused on 10/12-and-under players.

All applications must be supported with a financial breakdown and a detailed summary of how the assistance is planned to support the national programme during 2025. A financial breakdown template is included within the Guidance Document.

Applications that are JTI project related must be received no later than Tuesday 30 September 2025.
